HOMELESSNESS IN AUSTRALIA
AN INTRODUCTION
Homelessness in Australia: An Introduction

Homelessness in Australia: An Introduction provides thought-provoking, up-to-date information about the characteristics of the homeless population and contemporary policy debates.

Leading researchers and advocates from across Australia have come together to contribute their expertise and experience to produce a foundational resource that will set the benchmark for the future analysis of homelessness. Editors, Chris Chamberlain, Guy Johnson and Catherine Robinson are all recognised experts in the field.

Homelessness in Australia: An Introduction is published by New South Press in association with the Victorian Council to Homeless Persons, one of Australia’s leading peak homelessness advocacy bodies.

Homelessness in Australia: An Introduction contains 14 chapters.

Part 1 includes: an essay on homelessness policy from the start of the nineteenth century to recent times; a chapter measuring mobility in and out of the homeless population and a piece on the causes of homelessness.

Part 2 is about contemporary policy issues and discussions. It has chapters on: the debate about definition and counting; gender and homelessness; young people; older people; Indigenous homelessness; domestic and family violence; people with complex needs and the justice system; trauma as both a cause and consequence of homelessness; and people who are long-term or ‘chronically’ homeless.

Part 3 includes a piece on the ‘failure of the housing system’ and a chapter on ‘reforming the service system’.

People will find the essays in Homelessness in Australia both illuminating and challenging.

This important new book will be required reading for all people committed to ending homelessness in Australia.
